Kiwanis Club Celebrates Birthday

Wives And Many Guests Enjoy Fine Program That Ends With Dance

Two beautiful birthday cakes, each topped with a light green candle made in Nevada and containing Nevada sage, decorated the tables at the Woman's club-house Tuesday evening and indicated the nature of the Kiwanis meeting when the local club observed its 12th birthday, and the silver anniversary of Kiwanis International. The Sierra Madre birthday cake was cut by Charles B. Klunk, a charter member of the club with a perfect attendance record; and Dr. James P. Bowers, lieutenant-governor of Division 10 cut the International cake.

A delicious turkey dinner was served at 6:30 to about 80 Kiwanians and their wives and many guests, including Stanley Van Dyke, Dwight Lydell, president of the Monrovia club; Justin Kennedy, secretary of Division 10, and manager of the Southern Counties Gas Company, and Mrs. Kennedy, and Bob Bradford, past lieutenant-governor of Division 10. President William L. Burr presided and introduced Dr. Bowers who talked on "The Silver Anniversary of Kiwanis International." Mr. Klunk gave a resume of 12 years of service, and Ray O. Calkin summarized the history of the March of Dimes. L. O. Burkholder kept Kiwanians in an uproar with his jokes and anecdotes, and a splendid musical program was furnished by the Melody Maids and Male quartet, both from Pasadena Junior College. Following the program, dancing to Duke Rinaldi and his boys was enjoyed, and cards and Chinese checkers were played.

Eight past presidents of the local club attended: Charles E. Klunk, 1930; Waverly Pratt, 1931; Frank Spencer, 1932; Clarence Huntsinger, 1933; Arthur O. Pritchard, 1934; Dr. M. H. A. Peterson, 1937; R. H. Pickett, 1938; and Dr. R. C. Simpson, 1939.

A heavy rain accompanied by wind, thunder and lightning descended upon Sierra Madre shortly after midnight yesterday, and in spite of occasional bursts of sunshine during the day, dark clouds let loose big, wet drops most of the afternoon. Reduced Electric Rates Expected To Apply Here

It is believed Sierra Madre will undoubtedly be included in a rate reduction of the Southern California Edison company which was announced Wednesday by the California Railroad Commission and which will affect many communities. New, low rates and cities which will be affected will be announced within a few weeks. The reduction in electric rates resulted from an investigation of the utility's operation by the Railroad Commission during the last several months.

Lewis Estate Trade Brings Beverly Hills Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lewis have traded their estate at 1160 West Orange Grove avenue for a 12-room English type home at 703 Hillcrest road, Beverly Hills, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. George Dudley. Mr. Dudley is the owner of the Los Angeles Linen Supply company. Mrs. Dudley is prominent in club circles in Los Angeles and is now ways and means chairman of the Pledges Club and an active member of the Cradle Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley are both garden enthusiasts, and are delighted with their new estate, which they are now occupying here, especially the garden which was landscaped under the direction of J. R. Vore, father of Mrs. Lewis, who with Mrs. Vore will now live with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis in Beverly Hills.

Lenten Plans Of Churches Announced

Special Services On Ash Wednesday And Through The 40-Day Period

Lent, the annual season of fasting, a time of special penitence and preparation for the great feast of Easter, begins Ash Wednesday, February 7, and special services will be held at St. Rita's and the Church of the Ascension on that day. In the early church the duration of Lent either was not definitely fixed and varied in churches in different places but the early part of the 4th century the period of fasting was placed at approximately 40 days. Easter Sunday this year is March 24.

Ash Wednesday takes its name from the strewing of ashes on heads as a sign of penitence, and follows Shrove Tuesday which is a day of merrymaking and feasting. An annual Shrove Tuesday affair in Sierra Madre is the pancake luncheon given at the home of Mrs. A. E. Pulling, by the John Ruskin chapter of Daughters of the British Empire. It is anticipated that Tuesday's luncheon will be even more successful than in former years.

Two masses at St. Rita's will usher in the Lenten season, one at 6:30 a.m. and another at 8:15 a.m., when ashes will be blessed. There will be a sermon and service that evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Eustace Eilers, C.P., will give the sermon Wednesday evening and every Tuesday evening during Lent.

Stations of the Cross will be made each Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and 7:45 in the evening for the duration of the Lenten period.

Special services and Holy Communion will be held at the Church of the Ascension Ash Wednesday at 10 o'clock and Holy Communion will be given each Wednesday at the same hour during Lent, with weekly Litany and address each Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

John Colbert, Jr., is temporary president of the club which was recently formed to further social, educational and religious activities of young people of the parish between the ages of 18 and 30, and is affiliated with the Catholic Youth Federation. Miss Marie Schiltz, daughter of Mayor Schiltz is secretary of the organization, and Bob Moran and Joe Hinojosa, delegates, who will arrange meetings and contact other clubs in the Federation.

Secret ballots for the election of Federation officers next month were passed to the delegates and the secretary, and plans for a Spring rally were discussed. Forty-two young people attended the meeting, and representatives from clubs in Highland Park, South Pasadena, San Gabriel and Santa Anita were present.

The first social affair of the year to be sponsored by the Federation is a semi-formal dance to be given at the Oakmont Country Club tomorrow evening.

Next meeting of the club will be held at St. Rita's Auditorium, Monday, February 12, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting will be in the form of a 1 o'clock dinner, to which interested Sierra Madreans are invited. A. A. U. officials will also attend and help the committee lay plans for the route of the race and also decide on the date, probably in April. Sierra Madreans may get tickets by contacting Fred LaLone.

CAUKIN NOW FIXTURE AT POSTOFFICE

Ray O. Calkin is a fixture at the Sierra Madre postoffice now. His appointment as postmaster was sent to the Senate at Washington yesterday by President Roosevelt along with that of Frank G. Sutherland, acting postmaster of Pasadena.

During the term for which Mr. Calkin was originally appointed and which expired last June the Sierra Madre office was moved into the civil service class. The incumbent was one of 14 who took the U.S. civil service examination in June. He emerged with top rating and his reappointment yesterday is for an indeterminate period. He may be removed only for cause so long as the present civil service law affecting offices of Sierra Madre's class is effective.

New Officers Elected By GOP Club

Sam Graham, city engineer, was elected president of the Sierra Madre Republican Club at the annual meeting and election of officers at the park house Wednesday evening when a membership drive was launched and plans were made to secure a complete registration of local Republican voters in advance of the primary election at which candidates for the Legislature, Congress and other offices will be selected and at which the voters will probably have an opportunity to express their preference for a presidential candidate through the election of delegates to the National Convention.

Col. H. B. Hersey and the veteran Mark D. Welscher were elected honorary presidents of the club; Frank Spencer, vice-president; William H. Schwartz, secretary and Daniel H. Lewis was continued in the office of treasurer.

Carlton E. Pegler, retiring president of the organization, was appointed chairman of a committee to confer with officers of the Republican State, county and Congressional district committees on the allocation of campaign allowances to be spent in Sierra Madre through the local club.

Each member of the club was pledged to secure at least five new members before April 10 and to encourage enrollment of new members the annual dues were fixed at 50 cents.

Headquarters will be opened shortly in a downtown location and a canvass started to secure a maximum Republican registration.

How To Coddle Acre Of Vine Into Bloom Will Be Told

If you think coddling a potted geranium into bloom is a job—try sometime to wheedle an acre's worth of wistaria to punctual spring blossoming, to satisfy thousands of expectant tourists!

A hint of how it's done will be given at Wistaria Vine gardens Sunday evening, when following supper, George Warner, Cal-Tech chemical wizard, will outline the discovery and uses of his amazing new soil vitamin B-1—which is being used to nurse the big half-century old vine along, preparatory to the forthcoming Fete. The series of Sunday evening dinner gatherings, both garden affairs and Town Meetings, are finding increasing favor with Sierra Madre townfolk and other Southern visitors as well, according to Mrs. W. J. Lawless, president of the Wistaria association. Dinner reservations may be made today or Saturday by phone.

Show Place Of Early Days Is Sold

Topping Estate On East Sierra Madre Blvd. Bought By L. A. Bakery Executive

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Eilers, formerly of Los Angeles, are the new owners of the Topping estate at 695 West Sierra Madre Blvd., and are completely thrilled with the fact that they are in the same city with their son, Rev. Father Eustace Eilers, C.P., of the Passionist Fathers monastery on Monte Oliva. The Eilers have a large family and the 12-room high-ceilinged mansion on two and one-half acres of ground is just the right size for them.

Mr. Eilers is with the Van De Camp bakeries in Los Angeles, and besides their son at the Passionist Monastery, the other children are Carl J. Eilers, who lives with his family in Deadwood, S.D. He is with the Home State Mining Company. Alrich J. Eilers with his family, lives in Louisville, Ky., where he is personnel manager of the Ford Motor Company. John B. Eilers, another son, is with the Van De Camp company.

Three daughters live at home: Marie C. Eilers, who is with Dr. Lawrence Downs, Hollywood specialist; Eleanor R. Eilers, associated with a Los Angeles furniture company, and Lois A. Eilers with the Corolite Products company in Pasadena.

"Very soon we expect Carl and his family to arrive in Sierra Madre and make their home with us, and eventually Sierra Madre will house the entire Eilers family. We have visited in the city often and are delighted with the climate and unusual scenery," said Mrs. Eilers.

The new owners do not contemplate any changes in the beautiful home, but later may landscape the grounds. They have mining interests in the Black Hills of South Dakota near Lead.

Colonel H. W. Topping built the house which was a show place, over 20 years ago on the old Pierce estate. He died in February 1915, before the home was completed, but his widow lived there until 1937 when she passed away. Then a son, Earl, who now lives in Sierra Madre, and his wife, who died about a year ago, and son Jack, came here from Palm Springs to make their home in the cottage at the rear of the estate.

Sale of the home was made through the Sierra Madre Realty company.

New Fire Road Is Urged By Foresters

Route Over Mt. Wilson Trail Held Vitrally Important For Protection

Construction of a road over the old Mt. Wilson trail from the end of the existing road to the fire hydrant on the firebreak has been proposed to the city council by William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of Angeles forest, with the forest service providing hand labor for the clearing of a right of way and engineering services to locate and to stake the road and supervise construction of it.

A letter to his effect from Mr. Mendenhall was read at Tuesday's council meeting, and in line with the forest supervisor's suggestion the council agreed to provide a tractor and operator for clearing the right of way.

For several months there has been thought of building such a road which would protect the area back of the city and last summer the forest service made an inspection of the lower end of the old Mt. Wilson trail.

"In spite of the fact that we have done no work as yet, we feel that the construction of this road is of vital importance to the protection of the area immediately back of the city of Sierra Madre and also of importance in protecting the structural improvements in Sierra Madre canyon and along the front boundary of the forest from that point west," Mr. Mendenhall wrote.

It will first be necessary to secure the right of way through that section of the city. The forest service is now in a position to provide labor and engineering services but lacks money for equipment.

Classes In Crafts Given Fine Start

Dozen Adults Are Among First Forty To Enroll For Instruction

Organization of craft classes at the city parkhouse last week resulted in an enrollment of 40 enthusiastic pupils. The response has been very gratifying and it is expected that next week the enrollment will go considerably higher. Mrs. Pearl E. Bledsoe, instructor, is sending out cards to those young men and women who indicated in a previous questionnaire their desire to learn craft work.

There are about 12 adults registered, and the majority of them are interested in metal craft, hammering metals and metal embossing. Children's classes are held from 3 to 5 o'clock Monday through Friday, and from 10 to 12 o'clock on Saturday morning. Tuesday afternoons from 12:30 to 3 o'clock adults meet, and group-ups may also attend Wednesday, Thursdays and Fridays from 10 to 12 o'clock and 12:30 to 2:30 o'clock. Pupils purchase materials at the park house from Mrs. Bledsoe, who furnishes tools and implements. The material cost is the only fee.

"We are very pleased with the attendance at these classes," said Clarence G. Huntsinger, chairman of the youth committee. "Of course, it takes a little time for the news to get around that these classes are being held, but from the first weeks' enrollment we expect to build up an excellent attendance. Children are welcome daily and adults will receive instruction according to the schedule."

Heagerty's topic; and Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard will talk on "Spiritual Ground for World Prayer—The Book and the Church." Rev. Mr. Sheriff will conclude the program with a discussion of "Personal Ground for World Prayer, The Condition and the Answer."

The talks will be followed by a period of intercessory prayer. Dr. M. H. A. Peterson will be the soloist at the evening session.

Council In A Deadlock Over Pump

Vote Two And Two Over Acceptance Of An Amended Bid By Manufacturer

With one member absent the city council divided two and two over the letting of a contract for a booster pump for the water works at its meeting Tuesday evening. It was the first deadlock in the local law-making body in more than a decade and will probably be broken when there is a full attendance at the next regular meeting on Tuesday, February 20.

The division came over a motion to give the contract for a pump to the Byron Jackson Co., which was found to be a high bidder when sealed estimates were opened at a council meeting on January 23. The De Laval Steam Turbine company's bid was approximately $460 under that of the Byron Jackson Co. The council decided all bids were unsatisfactory and having made a thorough examination into the merits of the various pumps offered, decided to disregard them and make a purchase in the open market.

Subsequently the Byron Jackson Company increased the allowance offered on an old pump that is to be replaced, so that the cost of its pump would be identically the same as the bid submitted by the De Laval Company.

Councilman Carter moved at Tuesday's council meeting to buy the Byron Jackson pump at the new figure. Mayor Schiltz and Councilman Froehlich took the position that the Byron Jackson Co. had indulged in a highly unethical practice and was not deserving of the contract. Councilman Schwartz voted with Mr. Carter. The vote being two and two the council adjourned. Councilman Miller had been called to Laguna Beach by the serious illness of his mother.

Interest In Basketball Surprises

So Many Girls Enroll For Program That New Schedule Is Made Necessary

Exceeding all expectations, between 25 and 30 girls turned out for basket ball Monday evening at the Congregational church, first practice under the basketball program for boys and girls arranged by a committee of the Kiwanis club. The number of girls was so much larger than anticipated, that the dates for practice have been changed, according to S. E. McElfresh, committee chairman.

The new schedule, effective next week, gives Monday evening, from 7 to 10 o'clock entirely to girls' practice. Tuesday evening, from 6:30 to 7:30 boys of grammar school age will play, and from 7:30 to 10 o'clock the same night, the gym will be turned over to older boys, those of junior high school age.

After a few practice periods under the direction of Lorne Pratt, "Ugh" Ingraham, Kenneth Allan, Mr. Herberger and Virginia Smith, teams will be formed. Any young people who did not attend this week's practice and are interested in playing, are invited to be at the Congregational church hall at the proper time next week.

Plea Made For Sale Here Of Food Stamps

Sierra Madre relief clients, left out in the cold when the city was not included in the list where food stamps were put on sale yesterday, may, through the Chamber of Commerce, be aided. Monrovia and Pasadena are the nearest cities to Sierra Madre where relief clients and WPA workers may purchase stamps to be used to buy food at their local grocery store or meat market.

The Chamber of Commerce has contacted officials at the Los Angeles office of the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation and asked them to grant Sierra Madre an office of its own so that recipients of the plan will be able to buy their stamps at home.

There are two kinds of stamps, orange and blue, each valued at 25c. With every dollar's worth of orange stamps, good for any food commodity or laundering product, the purchaser receives without charge fifty cents worth of blue stamps, good for any item of meat, vegetables or groceries listed as a surplus food commodity. These surplus foods are butter, raisins, rice, lard, pork, corn meal, shell eggs, dried prunes, fresh pears, fresh apples, fresh oranges, fresh grapefruit, hominy grits, dried beans, dry onions, wheat flour and whole wheat or graham flour.

Food stamps are accepted in all retail food stores in the city and county of Los Angeles with a fixed retail place of business.

A product of Southern California

The Edison Company is as much a product of Southern California as are oranges, airplanes and motion pictures. California men and women, and California money, built the Edison Company and its owners are located throughout Edison territory. Californians have always owned and controlled the Company, and, today, approximately 80% of the 98,025 stockholders are residents of California. Equally important are the thousands of bondholders whose in vested savings have helped build the vast network of transmission lines, generating plants, and other equipment necessary to serve the 545,000 customers of the Edison Company.

Many thousands of these customers are also stockholders or bondholders of the Company. Wherever electricity has been needed, in factories and on farms, in towns and on isolated ranches, the lines of the Edison Company have stretched forth to serve the people of Southern California.

Stockholders, bondholders and customers—all have played an important part in making the Edison Company what it is today—a Company owned and controlled by the people it serves. To continue to provide a constant, dependable supply of electricity for business, industry, agriculture and community life is the public service to which this Company is dedicated.

Interesting Study For Adults To Open At Junior College

A course in far eastern relations, "America and the Orient," offered by the extended day program of Pasadena Junior college will give the historical facts behind the expiration Saturday, January 27, of America's trade treaty with Japan, and other recent events in America's Pacific relations. David W. Reidy, director, announced today.

Residents of Sierra Madre may take advantage of this and other courses offered in the evening to adults as well as youths by enrolling today, February 1, or Monday, February 4. The class meets Thursdays, 7 to 9 p.m. Motion pictures and outside speakers will be used in the course, if enrollment is sufficiently large. Questions such as "Why has every European peace settlement since the French Revolution been merely a prelude to another war?" and "How permanent is any Russo-German accord likely to be?" will be discussed in the extended history course of the extended day program, conducted by Harold A. Hansen of the college faculty. It is History 54B, meeting Tuesdays and Thursdays, 6:30 to 8 p.m.

For people who want some instruction in the basic techniques of designing, freehand drawing, or interior decoration, courses dealing with these subjects are also offered evenings.

NO NEW OR INCREASE IN OLD TAXES SLOGAN OF ECONOMY BLOC

By RALPH H. TAYLOR
(Executive Secretary, Agricultural Council of California)

NO NEW TAXES—and no increases in existing taxes! Tersely stated, that was the major plank in the legislative program of California's leading farm organizations a year ago, when the State Legislature met in regular session.

And it is still the most important objective, at least governmentally, of the farming industry, as the Legislature, getting down to work at its special session, prepares to grapple with the complicated relief problem and with requests for many millions in new taxes.

There is a consensus of opinion among leaders of the economy bloc in the Legislature that no new taxes need be levied—and no existing taxes need be increased—if the relief appropriation for the coming twelve months does not exceed $40,000,000. And there is also a strong opinion that the Legislature will not appropriate more than that amount for relief purposes; in fact, the best estimates at this writing indicate an appropriation of about $36,000,000.

If relief costs are held within reasonable bounds, current estimates disclose that present State revenues will be adequate to meet budgeted expenditures—with the prospect that the State deficit will be gradually whittled down by increasing income, due to expected improvement in business conditions. In light of these circumstances, economy-minded legislators are outspoken in declaring that no new taxes are needed—and that none will be voted.

From the standpoint of all taxpayers, whether farmers, wage-earners, professional men, or businessmen—it is to be hoped that the lawmakers who believe in economy, and who recognize the need for it, will stick by their guns and refuse to be stampeded into voting new tax increases.

California's tax burden, during the last six years, has more than doubled—at a time when the earnings of taxpayers have been at their lowest ebb in many years. And unless a halt is called, new business failures, new farm foreclosures, new bankruptcies—and thousands of new applicants for relief—will be inevitable. Public patience and public capacity to pay have both been exhausted.

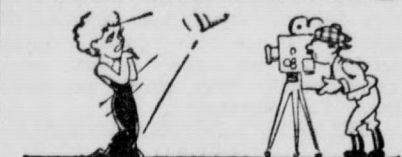

Perhaps the biggest contributing factor to the terrific increase in governmental spending has been the relief problem. But even though California taxpayers have willingly and generously supported the care of the needy and unfortunate, recent disclosures of conditions in relief administration indicate all too clearly that millions have been squandered and wasted; that politics has permeated relief administration; that radicals have fattened on "dues" exacted from unfortunate relief recipients—and that a thorough-going house-cleaning is long over-due! Certain it is that California can not continue with a system which has permitted relief costs to increase to a point where they are now 2½ times greater than they were at the depth of the depression. Because working, producing California just can't foot the bill for that type of spending. Entirely aside from the unfairness of a system which permits many on relief to have better incomes than many of those who help to support them, such a program eventually is bound to break down of its own weight. It is economically impossible, just as it is morally unjustifiable.

OBITUARY

MRS. AUGUSTA THAYER

The funeral service of Mrs. Augusta B. Thayer, wife of Wilbur F. Thayer, Jr., 435 North Grove street, was held at the Congregational Church at 10 o'clock Friday morning, January 26th, Rev. Arthur O. Pritchard officiating. Mrs. Thayer was a native of Hingham, Mass., daughter of the late Francis Willard and Augusta Brewer of Hingham, Mass., and had been a resident of Sierra Madre for 15 years. She leaves a family of her husband and three children, Helen, Wilbur and Celeste. Also surviving her are a sister, Mrs. William H. C. Walker, and a brother, Wilmon Brewer, both of Hingham, Mass. Interment was at Mountain View, Pasadena, services being in charge of Grant Chapel.

Mrs. Thayer's long illness prevented active participation in the life of Sierra Madre during the past few years but she was formerly a member of the Woman's Club, American Legion Auxiliary, and the Parent Teacher Association. She was deeply beloved by all who knew her, and will forever be an inspiration to her friends and loving relatives.

MRS. LORA NORTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Lora Lee Norton, 41, of Cypress Court, who passed away at a Los Angeles hospital Monday, were held at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning from Grant Chapel, with Rev. A. O. Pritchard officiating. Interment was at Sierra Madre cemetery.

Mrs. Norton was born in Texas and had been a Sierra Madre resident only a short time. In addition to her husband, Bruce Norton, who is employed by Jim Sinnott at Santa Anita race track, Mrs. Norton is survived by a son, Bruce, Jr.

Neutrality, like prosperity, is favored by everyone. But keeping a firm hold on neutrality has something in common with the County Fair game in which contestants must catch a greased pig—it is possible but difficult, and no job for the lazy or slow-witted. In ignoring America's protests against delaying our ships and seizing parts of their cargoes, Great Britain has thrown one more obstacle in the path of this country's neutrality. Other recent incidents further attest that passing laws or making speeches, in favor of neutrality are not enough to secure it. The invasion of the Pan-American safety zone by German and British warships, the attempt, fortunately unsuccessful, to transfer registry of American ships, the detention of transatlantic clipper planes at Bermuda by the British censor—all these have forced upon the State Department the job of making day-to-day decisions on matters not covered by neutrality legislation. But these day-to-day decisions, over a period of months, determine the course of America's foreign policy. Hence it is the wisdom and alertness of our statesmen, and the coolheadedness of the public—or the lack of these—rather than legislative measures, which will pilot the nation safely through troubled waters or run it afoul on the reefs.

That condition calls for a dose of strong medicine, such as Sen. Hatch proposes, to check the growth of political machines in these bureaus and agencies and to lessen the evils of patronage. Such medicine, applied too late, may find the nation already burdened with an entrenched bureaucracy.

Abraham Lincoln appreciated more fully perhaps than any other President the contribution of the American patent system to the social and economic progress of this country. "The patent system," he declared, "added the fuel of interest to the fire of genius of new and useful things."

As Los Angeles seeks legislative authority for the construction of the proposed Hollywood Parkway as the first of a network of non-stop motor routes, Chicago is proceeding with similar plans for a $205,000,000 motorway system to solve traffic congestion problems across its metropolitan area. Five express highways, such as proposed for Los Angeles, are planned in Chicago, the arterials to be eight lanes wide, centered in broad rights-of-way, designed to benefit rather than depreciate property. They will be separated from cross traffic, opposing travel and abutting property development. There will be no pedestrians, parking or traffic stops on the roads. The Illinois Legislature has authorized funds to initiate the work.

Counting at the rate of 150 a minute for 40 hours a week, beginning when America was discovered, it would take a man until 2603 A.D. to count $20,500,000,000—the cost of relief in America since 1932.

Landlubbers, ahoy! Those who have been taken in by the ancient wisecrack about the Swiss Navy will have their innings at last. This "strangest of all wars" has produced no more precedent-breaking event than that announced in despatches from Lausanne, Switzerland, last week. That proud and tiny republic, landlocked in the heart of Europe by towering Alpine crags, is going to write a new chapter in its history—and incidentally, spoil an old joke—by acquiring a navy, or at any rate, a merchant marine. It has, in fact, already chartered 15 Greek vessels which it will use in world trade to maintain securely the export and import commerce of the Swiss nation, now disrupted by the war. The Swissers' marine fleet will sail the high seas with the name of their country and its coat of arms proudly painted on each side of the vessels' hulls to ensure safety against attack—proving that when Solomon made his remark about their being nothing new under the sun, he was definitely stretching a point. Even now, we can see some veteran sea-dog of the seven seas scanning the horizon from his bridge, viewing with bewilderment the ships of Switzerland, and deciding B'gosh, he'd better lay off the bottle for a while!

Farmers in Kent, England, use stilts to tend and harvest their hop crops. To enable them to reach the top of the climbing vines, they have to master the art of walking on stilts 10 feet long.

At a time when Federal employees have passed the 900,000 mark—even exceeding the wartime peak of 1918 which was the highest in history—there is need for such a measure as that proposed in Congress the other day by Sen. Hatch of New Mexico. Extending a law passed last year prohibiting political activities of all Federal employees save those in policy-making positions, the new proposal would include all State employees whose salaries are paid in whole, or in part, by the Federal government. The vast army of workers in state and Federal government will not soon grow less. The advance of government into the fields of relief, the setting up of innumerable agencies, boards, and commissions, dealing with social security, pensions, unemployment, and the administration of labor laws, has put, and will keep, a huge number of persons on that government payroll for years to come.

Bethany Society To Hear How Women Of Africa Live

A program of unusual interest has been arranged for Tuesday, February 6, when the Woman's Missionary Society meets at 10:30 a.m. at Bethany Church. Miss Evelyn Woodworth of Africa Inland Mission will describe life of native African women.

Luncheon will be served at noon by Mrs. William Montgomery and committee. Mrs. George Southwell will conduct devotions at 1:20 p.m., and her husband will speak at 2 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Southwell have spent many years among lepers, and Mr. Southwell will use slides illustrating his talk.

The American Mission to Lepers is one of the oldest organizations in the United States which serves these needy people. Sierra Madreans are invited to attend as guests of Bethany.

VALLEY MOTORIST HELD FOR SPEEDING

Arrested on charges of speeding Sunday, Dwight M. Willard, 19, of 921 East Las Tunas drive, San Gabriel, will appear before Police Judge Tom Neale this afternoon at 1 o'clock. Officer Jim Heasley chased young Willard from Sierra Madre to Altadena where he was arrested. It was reported the speeder was doing 60 miles an hour as Heasley followed him along West Sierra Madre blvd., and 85 miles an hour west of the city limits. Officer Heasley reported that Willard drove through the boulevard stop sign at Sierra Madre Villa avenue.

PTA Will Sponsor An Old Fashioned Country Fair

An old fashioned country fair and spring sale, with fish ponds, booths, fortune telling, excellent entertainment and, most important part of any fair, the sale of aprons and other articles, will be given by the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association, Friday, April 5, in the grammar school cafeteria. This is the one big P.T.A. undertaking of the year, proceeds for which go to the milk fund for undernourished children.

Mrs. A. K. Eitner is chairman assisted by the ways and means committee. Mrs. R. H. Pickett, Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, Mrs. C. L. Young, Mrs. J. P. Donelan, Mrs. W. H. Scoins, Mrs. M. H. A. Peterson and Mrs. Ross Marshall.

Right now the committee, assisted by P.T.A. members, is sewing for the sale, making pot holders, aprons, tea cosies, crocheted hangers and doll clothes. Recently a large group met at the home of Mrs. Young to sew, and Tuesday, it will meet at Mrs. Eitner's East Orange Grove avenue home. Girls in Mrs. Adams' knitting class at the school are cooperating by making articles for sale.

SMALLEST ACCIDENTS MUST BE REPORTED

All traffic accidents, no matter how small, occurring within the city limits of Pasadena, must be reported to the local police department under a new traffic ordinance now in effect there. The law requires garages must report to police any automobile that bears evidence of having been in an accident.

Timely Tips

By Florence Matheny
Home Economist, Southern Counties Gas Company

"How to be happy 'though' hostess" should be the title of a book—for the givers of bridge parties! There are two ways of handling this party-refreshment problem.

One is preparation entirely in advance—when everything is completely ready in the automatic gas refrigerator to serve; and the other is when it is partly done—the biscuits cut and ready to bake; the coffee measured and the salad ready to be tossed. Which method to use depends upon the number of guests. In either case "quick tricks" are as handy as four aces (and much less rare) so save these for scoring:

HEARTS AND DIAMONDS
SALAD

2 cupfuls tomato juice
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin

1/4 teaspoonful salt

1-3 cupful carrots or celery, shredded

1-3 cupful green pepper, shredded

1/4 cupful Brazil nuts, chopped

Heat half the tomato juice over a medium gas flame. Pour over gelatin and stir until dissolved; add remaining cold tomato juice, salt; chill mixture in the automatic refrigerator or over ice cubes, until slightly thickened; fold in vegetables; and add Brazil nuts. Turn into individual molds (bridge shapes) and chill until firm. Or mold in a shallow pan and cut into shapes with bridge-shaped cutters, saving the "scraps" for a family salad later in the week. Serve with lettuce or endive. Serves 6.

TANGIERINE
MACARON WHIP

3 tangerines

1 cupful heavy cream

2 tablespoonsful sugar

12 small macaroons

Peel and segment tangerines, removing seeds. Whip cream until still, fold in sugar. Crumble macaroons and fold all together; chill. To serve, pile into chilled glass dishes and garnish with tangerine sections. For a delightful variation, try using the canned Mandarin oranges. Serves 6.

A GOOD DEAL: GINGERBREAD

Here's custom-made dessert for bridge parties or "surprise" snack parties. Make the gingerbread when you are dumpy. If the packaged kind is used, all one has to do is to add water according to directions on the package and slip it into a moderate gas oven (350° F.) for 50-60 minutes. Cut the gingerbread into squares; slice through the middle to make two layers. Just before serving, fill and top with vanilla ice cream. Chocolate or orange sauce goes well on top of this, or the ice cream may be omitted and fruit sauce or whipped cream used. The simplest way, of course, is to use the ice cream; simplest, that is, for those who keep a supply stored in the chillerator, for any and all occasions; frozen, not hard, but just firm. Serves 8.

"Get-Ahead" Idea

Money put to work earns more money. Equally true is the fact that unless you start saving you can hardly expect to get on toward the Security you desire. We have helped others get a "start." We can help you.

SAFeway CO-OPERATES
WITH U.S. GOVERNMENT
FOOD STAMP PLAN TO MARKET
SURPLUS FARM PRODUCTS

ON FEBRUARY 1st, the new Federal Food Stamp plan to market surplus farm commodities went into effect in Los Angeles County. The stamp plan has been inaugurated to give the farmer a greater return for his products and to assure better nutritional balance of food to the families that are being provided with surplus foods by the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation. It replaces, in Los Angeles County, the method by which the Government made purchases of surplus foods direct from farmers and gave them direct to the needy from warehouse depots.

Since our stores have long taken an active part in moving surplus farm products (in our organization—wide Producer—Consumer Campaigns), it is only natural that Safeway should be ready and willing to cooperate with the new Government plan. For their designated purposes, the new stamps are like so much cash at all Safeway stores in Los Angeles County. Blue stamps are good for the purchase of all surplus foods listed by the Secretary of Agriculture. Orange stamps are good for the purchase of any food-stuffs consumed at home, and for cleaning and laundry materials (but not utensils). Food-Order stamps buy exactly the same foods, and at the same prices as cash.

Everyone should be interested in this new stamp plan—whether he is eligible to buy food stamps or not. For it is smart and thrifty to watch for and buy the foods that are listed as surplus (blue stamp items). There are more of these foods available from farmers than normal buying has consumed—so they represent better values than usual. Buy these surplus foods and get more for your money whether you use food stamps or cash.

BLUE STAMP VALUES

These foods have been listed by the Secretary of Agriculture as Surplus Foods. They can therefore be purchased with the Blue Food-Order Stamps. Buy these foods at your neighborhood Safeway store. Take advantage of our low prices on ALL foods!

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

WE feasted our eyes on a collection of jade in a Los Angeles store last week...

Pieces so beautifully colored and intricately carved it seemed impossible that mortal hands could achieve such magic... The price-less collection contained vases, wine vessels, tea sets, perfume bottles... in colors ranging from blended ivories to bright apple green... pink and yellows... with blue agate jars and brownish red cornelian vases... all belonging to the jade family... and pieces in Fei Tsui, variegated blue...

A ball of perfect crystal... and a seven centuries old vase which looked massive weighed less than a pound... an exquisite statue of Kwan Yin... goddess of mercy... They were all so gorgeously colored and carved we would like to have spent hours studying them... but a hasty look was all we could manage... Then after listening to a piquant Chinese girl in a purple kimono give the history of jade, the symbol of courage and love... we were enthralled by a Chinese temple... on small scale... carved from a single piece of pale green jade... The lighting effects which cast shadows and highlights on the temple were unusual...

A good portion of Sierra Madre's adult population has seen "Gone with the Wind," and from what we have been able to gather... men and women are divided in their opinion of the pro-

G.O.P. CLUB TO HOLD LINCOLN DAY DINNER

Many Sierra Madrenes are expected to attend the Lincoln Day dinner, Monday, February 12, at 6:30 p.m. at the Altadena Golf Club. The dinner is given by the Republican club of the 48th Assembly district, and Judge Frank C. Collier of Pasadena will be the principal speaker.

MOTHER OF SCHOOL PHYSICIAN IS DEAD

Mrs. Helen Chamberlain Dale, mother of Dr. Mary B. Dale, Sierra Madre grammar school physician, passed away at her Pasadena residence, January 26. Funeral services were held Tuesday from Forest Lawn cemetery.

GIRL SCOUTS MAKE RANK ON CANYON HIKE

A hike to Millard canyon north of Pasadena was enjoyed by Sierra Madre Girl Scouts Saturday. The girls cooked meals out-of-doors, laid trail signs, built fires, and performed other duties which enabled some of the scouts to finish their second class rank. The trip was planned by Shirley Shelvan, Juanita Thompson and Juanita Crossit. Other Scouts participating were Muriel Jack, Jean Goodrich, Jean Breton, Lois Wilson, June Wilcox and Floretta Keith.

VIOLINIST TO PLAY FOR ARTS GUILD

Jascha Gagna, a member of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra and an Arcadia resident, will play a group of violin solos at the Sierra Madre Arts Guild meeting this evening at the Dewey studio on East Montecito avenue. He will be accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Anderson, also of Arcadia. A feature of the program will be an exhibition of minerals and gems by Archie Edwards.

Most of the men... impatient creatures, anyway... think the picture is much too long... They say, "There's a name for people who will sit four hours in a crowded theatre watching the antics of a selfish woman..." But most of them agree with the coloring and character portrayal is excellent... All except one Sierra Madren (male) who doesn't like any part of it...

We were very pleased when townfolk dropped in to tell us that Victoria, B.C., was a familiar place to them... Just talking about it seemed to bring back part of our vacation... C. W. Jones, vice-chairman of the local American Red Cross chapter... visited there... and it is a familiar place to the Boyd Keiths... who spent four summers in the Canadian city... but have skipped the winters... Mrs. Fannie Sea of West Montecito avenue... formerly lived in Victoria... and has many relatives and friends there...

We liked the description a world traveled friend of hers gave of the Empress hotel... which we will always remember for its size, beautiful surroundings, and magnificent interior... The two word description was "quite elegance."

Girls Prove Selves Good Salesmen In Doughnut Drive

Enthusiastic Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds of the Sierra Madre Council, who began their annual doughnut drive this year determined to reach a quota of 600 dozens, brought the drive to a triumphal close Saturday by exceeding their quota by 14 dozens. Each dozen nets for the organization 12 9-10 cents, one cent of which is retained by the girls for supplies, one cent going to the local guardians for prizes and other necessities for the girls, and the remaining amount sent to the Pasadena Council, for the maintenance of the camps where local girls will be privileged to spend their vacations.

Mrs. B. L. Hinkley, chairman of the Community Committee this week, extended formal appreciation to members of the community for their generous cooperation.

More Famed Artists Billed For Vodvil Show Of V.F.W.

Another roster of names famed in movie and entertainment circles in Hollywood was announced this week as participants in the big vodvil show sponsored by the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post, Saturday evening, February 17 at the grammar school auditorium.

Among the splendid actors who will entertain Sierra Madreans are Russell Simpson, who is cast as the father in "Grapes of Wrath," Spencer Charters, noted character actor, who appeared in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," and Al Herman, celebrated black-face comedian. Beautiful Virginia Vale, who won the Gateway to Hollywood contest, will do her bit for the benefit performance by singing, and Loraine Kreuger, charming movie actress under contract to RKO and featured in "Idiot's Delight" and "Farmer's Daughter" is another celebrity.

The cast will be headed by Leo Carrillo, Ralph Bellamy, Billy Gilbert, James Burke, assisted by Eleanor Durke, Larry Blake, Lew Masconi and helpers; Pat and Patsy Moran, and Roper's 20 piece juvenile accordion band and other entertainers who put on a grand show, with Pat West as master of ceremonies. Reserved seat tickets are on sale at the Sierra Newstand.

LOCAL RESIDENT OWNS RICHIE CLEANERS NOW

G. A. Smart of 98 South Lima street, a resident of Sierra Madre for six years, purchased the Richie Dry Cleaners establishment on 47 West Sierra Madre blvd., and took possession Monday.

Mothers Against War See Great Growth Of Organization

Sierra Madre members of the National Legion of Mothers of America opposed to war have been following with intense interest the weeks activities of Kathleen Norris, president of the Legion who on her arrival in Los Angeles from Palo Alto early this week declared: "Five million women pledged to a cause like this can do anything." It is the hope of Mrs. Norris that the present membership of two million will be swelled to three times that number within the next few weeks.

The climax of her visit was a mass meeting in the auditorium of the Hollywood High school Wednesday afternoon at which she was the principal speaker. Other speakers were Archbishop John J. Cantwell, Bishop Robert L. Gooden and Rabbi Edgar F. Magnin. Sierra Madre members are urged by the local committee to tune in on KMTR each Monday at 11:15 a.m. when announcements of important meeting will be made.

30TH ANNIVERSARY OF BOY SCOUT MOVEMENT WILL BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED HERE

America's 1,330,000 cubs, Boy Scouts and their leaders will celebrate the 30th anniversary of the incorporation of the Boy Scouts of America in a week's observance beginning Thursday, February 8. Boy Scout week is the most important week in the Scout calendar and nine million present and former scouts and leaders will join the celebration which this year has as its theme "Scouting—The American Way."

In Sierra Madre two important Scout events are scheduled for the coming week. Monday evening, February 5, at 7:30 o'clock, a Court of Honor will be held at St. Rita's auditorium. Scouts from Troops 1 and 2 will receive awards, merit badges from their scoutmasters and members of the Pasadena-San Gabriel valley council.

A dinner celebrating the 30th anniversary of scouting in America is announced by the Activities Committee of the Sierra Madre district, Boy Scouts of America. The dinner will be held Monday evening, February 12, at 6:30 o'clock at the Woman's clubhouse. Scout executives from council headquarters will participate in an appropriate program designed not only to celebrate the anniversary of Scouting but to explain the good to be derived from the Scout movement and membership.

"America's future lies in its youth" is a well worded statement, and everyone should be interested in the youth of the nation that they might grow into manhood physically strong, mentally alert and morally straight. It is expected that all cubs and scouts, their parents and everyone interested in such work will be present, and the activities committee invites Sierra Madreans to attend to add momentum to the work which is being so admirably carried on," said W. A. Kinney, chairman of the committee in charge.

Tickets for the dinner and program will be 35 cents and may be secured at several business houses which will be announced later. Ask any scout, scout or cubber.

Open Headquarters To Receive Federal Income Taxes

A permanent revenue office where Sierra Madreans will be able to file federal income tax returns for 1939, pay taxes, secure advice, and have their signatures notarized at no cost, will be opened at the Federal building in Pasadena, Monday, February 5, and will remain open on all business days to and including March 15, the deadline for filing returns.

All single persons, regardless of the number of dependents, or their status as head of a family, who earned a net income of $1,000 or more in 1939 must file returns. All married people who lived together during 1939 and whose combined net income was $2,500 or more, must file returns. The law now requires that all persons with a gross income of $5,000 or more in 1939 must file returns without regard to their marital status, number of dependents or actual net income. Compensation of all officers and employees of states, cities, counties, etc., and their various agencies is now taxable without exception. This includes judges, governors, mayors, commissioners, members of state and local legislatures, schoolteachers, engineers, policemen, firemen, nurses, clerks, etc.

IT COSTS MORE IF HE COMES TO YOUR DOOR

Don't wait until the Doctor has to come to you. If you aren't quite up to par physically, go now to your family physician, or to a specialist. Delay may mean a serious illness, with added expense and needless suffering later.

And when you have the Doctor's prescription, bring it here, where we maintain ethical standards as rigid as those of your own physician. It costs no more to be safe!
